Elaine Lajeunesse

Senior Vice President, Risk Management
Chief Risk Officer

TD Insurance
TD Bank Financial Group

Elaine Lajeunesse joined TD Bank Financial Group in September 2017, as Senior Vice President and Chief Risk Officer, TD Insurance. In her role, she oversees TD Insurance and TD Reinsurance, Risk Management. Her career of 30 years spans over a wide range of various roles and organizations. Elaine is an experienced executive with broad professional and business experience within the financial services industry, with a main focus on insurance/reinsurance and banking.

Elaine's deep understanding of insurance operations supports companies' growth and value creation through extensive knowledge of both life and P&C insurers' operations, in particular for underwriting, claims, finance, actuarial and risk management. She encourages the risk discussion and integration of risk into strategic and business decisions. Her approach is and has always been to combine analytic process, common sense and strategic thinking to develop and deliver simple and practical solutions to complex issues collaboratively.

In addition to her role as SVP Risk Management & Chief Risk Officer, TD Insurance, Elaine is a Director on the Boards of TD Insurance and TD Reinsurance Barbados. She is also a member of TD Retirement Committee and is currently the Executive Sponsor of the TD Risk Management Visible Minorities. She is an active member of the Public Statement Committee for Canadian Institute of Actuaries.

Elaine holds a B.Sc., Actuarial Science from Université Laval. She is a Fellow of the Canadian Institute Actuaries, Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society and is a CFA charter holder.
